

For effective use of standard ICAO Level 4 phraseology

- ✘ ensuring safe radiotelephony communication
- ✘ satisfying ICAO language proficiency requirements

Who is the course for?

All aviation professionals involved in international traffic and required to prove their competence in English to ICAO Level 4 standard

- ✘ pilots or pilot trainees
- ✘ air-traffic controllers
- ✘ other air-crew

What does the course provide?

The course is designed to improve operational fluency and to enhance confidence when dealing with safety-critical situations during flight operations.

Course Description

- ✘ Topics
 - take-off, cruising and descending
 - routine ATC exchanges
 - operational emergencies
- ✘ Language
 - vocabulary and pronunciation
 - listening and responding
 - effective communication
- ✘ Course features
 - qualified and experienced English language trainers
 - up-to-date and authentic materials incl. audio files and videos
 - simulations and role-plays

AE courses are offered at different levels including 1:1 weekend courses at Kiel Airport and other locations regularly throughout the year.

Aviation English

Svenja Schilling

Ann Troy-Inniss

www.a-tt.de
 Haßberg 19, 24113 Kiel
 Telephone: +49 431 200 44 09
 Email: aviationenglish@a-tt.de

Members of  associated trainers &
translators

Cooperating with  Flughafen Kiel